The Office of Tenebrae*

Tenebrae is the Latin word for shadows. It is a service of lessons accompanied by the gradual extinguishing of lights.

The readings commemorate the events of the Last Supper, the betrayal, the arrest and trial. The readings are separated by hymns and choral music.

In memory of the first Lord's Supper on the night of betrayal we also celebrate Holy Communion.

It is a solemn and beautiful service and the Board of Deacons hopes you will join us.
