

The Weathervane

A weekly E-Newsletter

April 29 2010

Volume 1 No. 13

Thanks For Your Comments

In recent weeks some of you have suggested some “tweaks” to the order of worship. Enrico and I sat down together and thought through some options and chose the following.

Beginning this week, the period following the sermon will be called Reflective Response and will include instrumental and vocal music as well as periods of silent meditation. It will vary from week to week in ways that reflect the theme and content of worship for that week.

Thanks for communicating with us.

From Pastor Pat

Monday evening marked the half way point in the Kerygma Bible Study Group. Kerygma, the Bible in Depth, is a comprehensive study program that traces central themes of the Judeo Christian tradition through both Testaments. It has been and remains an exciting privilege to share with those who gather faithfully week after week. Our participants are to be congratulated: David Barwise, Susan Berman, Jan Blackwell, Cindy Buxton, Andy Cournoyer, Jim Findlay, Doris Findlay, Richard Geisler, Joanne Gyorgy, Regina Hutton, Grace Jackson, Dottie Leduc, Ken Kermes, Jean Miller, Nancy Ross, Mary Ann Scott, Cliff Snow, Sue Snow, Claudia Smith, Maureen White, Steven White, Jack Whitehead.

SHARE YOUR WORDS OF CONGRATULATIONS!!

This Sunday's Readings

Acts 11: 1-18

John 13: 31-35

REMEMBER IT'S BLUE JEAN SUNDAY!

Quote of the Week:

“In Christ's sight there are no insiders or outsiders, for we are finally of one nature and one flesh and one grief and one hope.

And in Christ's sight, if we fail in love we fail in all things else...”

William Sloane Coffin